----- Newsletter June 2022 -----

NEWS:

Hello everyone and welcome to June. We are halfway through 2022 and winter is upon us and so is the change in weather conditions of shorter daylight hours, cold, wind and rain. Like it or hate it we adapt or try to. It's all part of life, but not for some I know that spend their winters in a different county where they have what they refer to as a summer home. That is what I would call a cheat code.

Our Services have been flowing nicely with some good messages being passed on through the invited Platform Mediums and some good readings and addresses full of great content that can be applied to your everyday life which is always so good to listen to.

On the 17th of July 2022 is our AGM to be held after Service @7:15pm. I would encourage all members to attend if you wish to vote, as we are electing the Officers and Committee for the next year ahead, we will also be providing refreshments.

Memberships for 2021 to 2022 have not been collected due the Church being shut because of Covid lock downs. Now, that we are fairly well back to normal, memberships are due on the 1st of July 2022 at the same price of $30 for the entire year. This represents great value as you get access to our extensive range of books from our library, also all classes are half price, plus any Reading Days we have throughout the year are heavily discounted for members. For membership forms go to - <https://www.spiritualgrowth4u.com/> or alternatively you can fill out a form at the Church.

We are holding a Reading Day at the Church on the 6th of August 2022 starting at 10:30am, if you would like to book ahead then please email - events@spiritualgrowth4u.com or alternatively door sales will be available.

Please go to our Facebook Page www.facebook.com/SpiritualistchurchNZ for updates.

What it is to be Human (This was my church address 8th May)

Well, I have to be honest. I've been putting off thinking about this address all week. As this is my first address and I was unsure really what to talk about or what to deliver as my mind was drawing a blank.

Come Sunday afternoon I realized I still had nothing. So, I sat in the quiet. I ask Spirit why this is and to help me to see why I am struggling.

When I was nearly ready to give up, I was shown the word 'struggling' in my mind, the word that I had just said, and straight away it resonated with me.

At the beginning of the week when I thought about doing an address the first thing that came in was one of anxiety, fear of failure and fear of looking like an idiot.

Then I thought; I've had many struggles throughout my life and overcome many and looked like an idiot many a time too, so, this should come as nothing new just a different situation.

This is a normal human emotion in the form of self-sabotage that many people experience. You see, I had already formed the outcome as a negative experience as I had the fear of failure.

So, in light of all this, what hope did I really have to deliver an address when I had clearly cemented the outcome before the event had even started by creating the self-doubt which comes about through my energy and emotion and through my original thoughts I had chosen.

Now I had something to talk about, a subject I know only too well, and I felt inspired to write my message down.

As we journey through life. We are influenced by many things. We are pulled in many directions. At times our emotions can be accustomed to a roller coaster ride.

With all this going on, one would wonder how we get out of bed in the mornings. But this is what it is to be human. Without these experiences we don't learn, we don't grow, and we don't get to experience the great things life has to offer or appreciation for what we have or how far we have come or respect others individual life paths.

You see my experience I mentioned is not isolated to me, this is a common experience had by many, just a different situation.

It's just so easy to jump into the river of life and swim against the current and go nowhere but backwards as opposed to aligning yourself to what you want, creating that desire from within and taking the path of least resistance.

Some would say I've tried that Law of Attraction stuff and positive thinking stuff, and even done thousands of affirmations, "it's just rubbish it doesn't work". I would reply this is simply not just Law of Attraction, it is a way of life; for YOU are the creator of your own reality.

Somewhere you are holding resistance, so ask yourself:
Are you a vibrational match to that you desire?

Do you feel positive emotion with that that you want?

Can you honestly say you have no doubt that you are deserving of this and hold the power of nonresistance thought?

Did you ask Spirit for guidance and help?

You see this is not something you just try! You have to live it, feel it and believe without doubt that it is a given, and if this is not the package you are practicing them you will not get that which you desire.

I speak from experience in this matter I have actively been learning and practiced this for the last 30+ years and seen many changes for myself big and small.

"Did these changes happen overnight or right away"? No, but they did happen! Is it hard? Yes, it can be, because it's not always obvious where we block the course of flow, plus we have to deal with our logical human thought process.

You see, we are an extension of source energy in a physical body. We have a team in spirit. willing to guide us, comfort us, and love us, and who are on hand 24/7.

But we must remember, this is our journey, and we have free will to do whatever we like. We can make it as hard as we like or as easy as we like. When our time here on the physical plane comes to an end we move back to spirit in the form of energy, because there is no death.

So, consider this for a moment, if this is what happens when we pass do you not think that this is super powerful stuff? The fact that our soul can move out of our physical body and still exist as energy in another dimension.

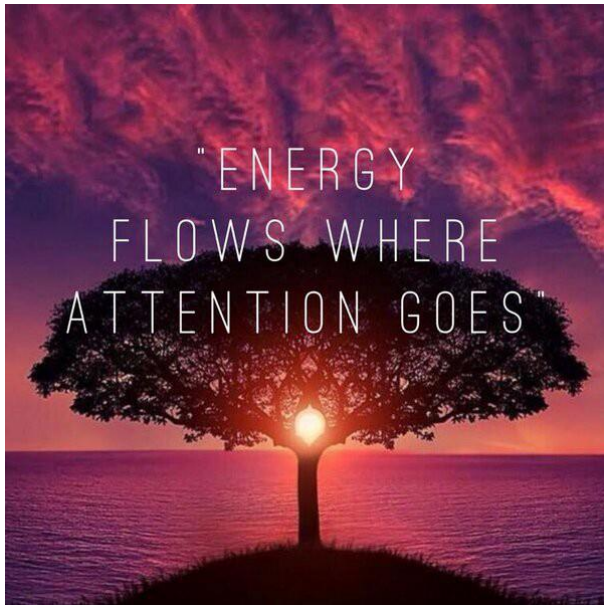

I think that is massively powerful!

So, with that being said, as everything on this planet is energy, why would you entertain the idea that you cannot create your own destiny for the life you want by harnessing that same energy that we clearly have and use it now?

In your corner.

Thank you, and thankyou to Spirit for your guidance and help.

The Missing Watch

There once was a farmer who discovered that he had lost his watch in the barn. It was no ordinary watch because it had sentimental value for him.

After searching high and low among the hay for a long while; he gave up and enlisted the help of a group of children playing outside the barn. He promised them that the person who found it would be rewarded. Hearing this, the children hurried inside the barn, went through and around the entire stack of hay but still could not find the watch.

Just when the farmer was about to give up looking for his watch, a little boy went up to him and asked to be given another chance. The farmer looked at him and thought, "Why not? After all, this kid looks sincere enough". So, the farmer sent the little boy back in the barn.

After a while the little boy came out with the watch in his hand! The farmer was both happy and surprised and so he asked the boy how he succeeded where the rest had failed. The boy replied, "I did nothing but sit on the ground and listen. In the silence, I heard the ticking of the watch and just looked for it in that direction".

Moral: A peaceful mind can think better than a worked-up mind.

Allow a few minutes of silence to your mind every day, and see, how sharply it helps you to set your life the way you expect it to be!
