Newsletter June 2025

NEWS:

Hello everyone and welcome to June. The past month has been quite eventful. It began with the Demonstration of Spirit Communication evening on May 10th, featuring Sarah Jeffery from Australia. The weather that night was particularly challenging, with heavy rain and strong winds, making it less than inviting to venture out. However, those who braved the conditions were rewarded with a wonderful experience of evidential mediumship.

Following this, Sarah conducted a two-day evidential mediumship workshop titled "Spirit's Voice: Your Expression." The workshop was fully sold out for both days and proved to be very intensive. As usual, Sarah delivered as much knowledge and practical exercises as possible, providing attendees with maximum value and plenty to work on and think about moving forward.

To all those who supported these two events, we at SASC extend our heartfelt thank you. Your support is crucial, as it enables us to continue hosting such events for the community.

Other news that has literally just come in is The Spiritualist Alliance Church has a grand opening date for their first service on the 6th of July 2025 at 5pm in their new location - 333 Onehunga Mall Rd. Onehunga, Auckland. This has been a long time in the making, so if your free on this day they would love for you to come along as your support would be very much appreciated. RSVP 20th June for catering purposes. spiritall@outlook.co.nz or ph. 0211865949 Please check out their Facebook page for more information on their opening service https://www.facebook.com/spiritallnz

Till next month - talk soon

Love Is The Language Of The Universe!

In a world where complexity and conflicts run rampant, we often overlook the real truth:

LOVE is the universal language that transcends barriers, unites us to all that is, and gives purpose to our existence.

"Love is a vibration that aligns you with the frequency of all that is!"

Love Needs No Translator:

There is no language that love does not speak!

We know love through our finer senses.

"Love is the language of the universe, and when you speak it, you become one with everything!"

Love Is More Than Just an Emotion:

It is a cosmic energy that flows through every atom, heart, and soul, defining our existence and relationships.

"Where there is love there is life!" Mahatma Gandhi

Love Has the Power to Unite Us All:

Love is the potent force that binds and connects us, infusing our existence with meaning.

It transcends barriers of language, borders, differences, even time, permeating every atom, heart, and soul.

"The reason the universe is eternal is that it does not live for itself; it gives life to others as it transforms!"

Lao Tzu

Love Has No limitations:

Love knows no boundaries, discrimination, or exclusion.

In our diverse world, with its myriad races, religions, beliefs, and backgrounds, we find ourselves fundamentally connected by the infinite thread of our shared humanity.

Love embraces these differences with compassion, goodwill, and understanding.

"Love is the absence of judgment!"
Dalai Lama

Expressing Love:

Expressing love allows us to be agents of positive change, dismantling walls of prejudice, hatred, and fear.

It enables us to recognize the humanity in others, treating them with kindness, respect, and empathy.

"Love is the essence of the universe! Love in action is service!" Sri Ravi Shankar

Love is universal and boundlessly abundant within us all.

Illuminating Hearts:

Love can illuminate even the darkest corners of our hearts, guiding us toward a more compassionate and unified world.

The immense power of love in our lives should not be underestimated.

Love is like the wind, you can't see it, but you can feel it! Nicholas Sparks

Beyond Words:

Its language extends beyond words, speaking through acts woven with kindness, compassion, and understanding.

Love can be revealed in small gestures of selflessness or grand displays of empathy.

It is present in the compassion we show to strangers, the understanding we offer to those who suffer, and the kindness we bestow without expectation of reciprocation.

Love's language is evident in the smiles we share, the supportive ears we lend, and the way we lift each other up.

"The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen, nor touched... but felt in the heart!"

Helen Keller

Courage And Vulnerability:

However, let us not forget that love requires courage and vulnerability.

Love demands that we see the humanity in others, even when it challenges us.

It calls for forgiveness, healing, and letting go of resentment.

Love is the easiest thing there is!

It is the layers of doubt, fear and expectation that make it complicated!

"There is no fear when you choose love! The more you choose love, the more love in your life! It gets easier and easier!" Melissa Etheridge

Imagine...

Imagine a world where love drives every action, fostering acceptance, respect, and goodness.

In this world, conflicts are resolved through understanding and forgiveness, not violence or revenge.

Where we cherish our planet and all living beings, acknowledging our responsibility to protect and nurture this beautiful home we share.

"Hell is the absence of love!"
Nancee Cain

Love As Our Guiding Principle:

Visualize a world where love is the guiding principle, where we approach each other with compassion and understanding, appreciating the beauty of our diversity.

Imagine how we treat every living being with respect and dignity.

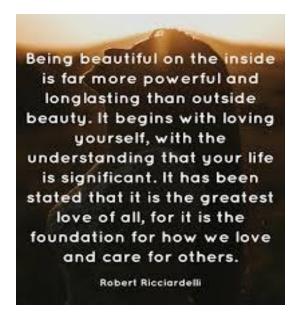

"There is a lot of life on the planet that needs love, wants love, deserves love, in whatever capacity we are able!"
Bellamy Young

The Ripple Effect of Love Is Potent:

When we practice love, it becomes contagious, inspiring others to do the same.

A single act of love and kindness can touch countless lives, igniting a chain reaction of compassion that spreads like wildfire.

Each of us has the power to be a catalyst for positive change through love, becoming beacons that inspire others to follow.

"Listen through the ears of tolerance!

See through the eyes of compassion!

Speak with the language of love!"

Conclusion:

Love is the foundation of our relationships and the core of our humanity.

It knows no boundaries, possessing the ability to heal, bridge gaps, and create harmony.

Love does not discriminate, judge, or exclude.

For love conquers hate, fear, and all that threatens to divide us.

"Love is the whole thing! We are only pieces!" Rumi

Lead By Example:

Let us lead by example and spread love wherever we go, in every action we take and every word we speak.

"Love is a great beautifier!" Louisa May Alcott

Love is the universal language, residing within each of us, ready to be spoken fluently and unapologetically.

"Spread love wherever you go! Let no one ever come to you without leaving happier!" Mother Teresa

Choose Love, Not Fear!

Love in such a way that all you love feels free!

Because...

LOVE is the language of the universe! Fear is the language of the mind!
