Jun 21 st	Kay Moore
Jun 28 th	to be advised

To all members and friends of the South
Auckland Spiritualist Church

We are all set up and ready to open our doors again, so this is an invitation to you all to come together with us for our first post-lockdown service at 5.30pm on Sunday, June 7th. It will be a celebration of us coming together, people of like mind meeting in their spiritual truth, so the vibration will be one of joy. We will start with a bang, with our Ministers on platform. Susan Kirker will chair the service, and Matthew Tod will be our medium.

We have made changes though, based on the Covid Level 2 guidelines, with health and safety in mind. The changes will stay in place until further notice, so please:

- fill out the contact-tracing register on the counter - sanitise before and after using the pen provided, or use your own pen.
- practice physical distancing
- wash/sanitise hands - sanitiser is provided

For this time we will not:

- join hands at the front of the church for the healing hymn
- practice hands-on healing; it will all be hands-free
- provide a cuppa at the end of the service. We can provide hot or cold water, but we ask that you bring your own drink bottle or flask, and a snack for yourself, if you wish.

Come one, come all; we can't wait to see you again

Love and Light, Karena

The following is an excerpt from The Gentle Brother – White Eagle

Every one of you at some time, perhaps all the time, longs for peace. You think of peace as meaning goodwill towards each other, goodwill among nations, the laying down of arms. But peace is far more than this; it can only be understood and realised within your heart. It lies beneath all the turmoil and noise and clamour of the world, beneath feeling, beneath thought. It is found in the deep, deep silence and stillness of the soul. It is spirit: in other words, it is God, your Creator.
